

Joseph Pontecorvo • Producer / Cinematographer

BEARTREK • Producer • Cinematographer

A feature length documentary. An epic adventure featuring Chris Morgan, a British motorcycling bear biologist on a global adventure to seek the rarest bears on Earth. For theatrical release and Television. Currently in production

Kingdom of the Elephants • Producer / Cinematographer

A sixty minute documentary special about human / elephant relationship in the Kingdom of Thailand. The story follows a young female mahout as she embarks upon a journey to a distant village. For Animal Planet International.

Mekong: Soul of a River (4x60) • Series Producer / Producer / Cinematographer

A four part documentary series that explores the wildlife and culture along the Mekong River- from it's origins in the South China Sea across six countries of Southeast Asia to it's source on the Tibetan Plateau. For Animal Planet International and Discovery HD.

Mekong Soul of a River: Mother of Waters • Producer / Cinematographer

Mekong Soul of a River: Source of Life • Producer / Cinematographer

In the Shadow of the Tiger • Producer / Cinematographer / Editor

Fifty-two minute broadcast documentary filmed on location in the remote wilderness of coastal Siberia. "In the Shadow of the Tiger" is about the science and conservation of the last remaining wild Siberian Tigers left on earth- for broadcast on The Discovery Channel & The National Geographic Channels. Telly Award & 23rd International Wildlife Film Festival Finalist.

Rudy Maxa's World: Thailand (3X30) • Producer / Cinematographer

Three half hour travel documentaries about three distinct areas of Thailand: The Golden triangle, The Andaman Coast, and Bangkok. For PBS

Hyper Rescue Tokyo • Producer / Cinematographer

A sixty-minute broadcast documentary about Tokyo's special high-tech emergency rescue unit known as "Hyper Rescue." For the National Geographic Channels .

Equator: Pacific • Wildlife Cinematographer

A sixty-minute broadcast documentary, part of a six part natural history series about life on the Equator. This episode looks at life on the Galapagos Islands and Palmyra Atoll. The Equator covers only five percent of the Earth's surface but is home to 50 percent of its animal and plant species. This remarkable series, filmed in high definition, will take viewers to the most extreme and diverse locations on the planet. For NHK Japan, Discovery HD, NHNZ, and France 5.

Lions of Yellowstone • Producer / Cinematographer / Editor

Educational DVD containing two twenty-minute documentaries that explore the precarious relationship between two of North America's top predators: the mountain lion and the wolf. The documentaries follow a team of scientists as they explore large predator interaction in an attempt to better understand what these animals need to survive. For distribution world wide on DVD.

Joseph Pontecorvo • Producer / Cinematographer

The Jason Project XIV and XV • Cinematographer

Jason XV: Rainforest at the Crossroads – a live broadcast from the tropical forest of Barro Colorado Island, Panama. The broadcast are aired on the National Geographic Channels and streaming on the live on the web.

Jason XIV: From Shore to Sea – a thirty-minute educational documentary created for the Jason Project. This documentary is an exciting journey to the unique Channel Islands region of California. This area includes the Channel Islands National Park, the waters of the Channel Islands National Marine Sanctuary and the densely populated California coastline.

Tigers: Fighting Back • Cinematographer

A sixty-minute documentary special for the National Geographic Channels International. "Tigers: Fighting Back" is about the dramatic conservation efforts to save tigers in the wild. From Southern India to the Russian Far East three intrepid biologist struggle to protect the remaining wild tigers from extinction. National Geographic Channels

Over Alaska • Wildlife Cinematographer

Sixty-minute broadcast documentary about the great Alaskan wilderness. From Southeast Alaska to Denali National Park "Over Alaska" was filmed entirely in High Definition. - for National PBS and NHK Japan. Nominated for an Emmy Award in Cinematography.

The Tech Effect • Producer / Director / Director of Photography

A thirty-minute documentary series that explores the role technology has played in historic events. From Apollo 11 to Washington crossing the Delaware technology has influenced history in unexpected ways. For the History Channel

Absolute Evel: The Evel Knievel Story • Director / Director of Photography

A two-hour documentary about the life and times of famed daredevil, Evel Knievel. For the History Channel.

The X-Factor • Director of Photography

Sixty-minute broadcast special about the competitive world of video games. The documentary follows the development of an X-Box game from initial concept to final delivery. For The Discovery Channel.

Critical Habitat • Cinematographer

Ninety minute documentary on the ecosystem of the ancient forests and the controversy that surrounds it - for broadcast on National PBS. Chicago Film Festival Award.

Crocodile Tears • Director of Photography

Independent feature film. "Crocodile Tears" is a contemporary retelling of Faust, in which an HIV positive male makes a deal with the devil to save his life - for direct to video release. Now Available At Blockbuster Video & Amazon.com.

A & E's Biography • Cinematographer

Fifty-two minute documentary for the Arts & Entertainment network. This episode of "Biography" explores the infamous and controversial Roman emperor Caligula - for broadcast on A & E.